Peter Lissner began taking piano lessons at the young age of five. Because of his growing love for music, Mr. Lissner also began studying the clarinet at the age of 8 at the Institute of Music in Erlangen. He is currently studying Music Education, Ethnomusicology, and Andragogy at the University of Bamberg and is preparing to take the Master Examination. Mr. Lissner has provided music education to children, youth and adults throughout the Bamberg area. In addition, he has accompanied solo instrumentalists and singers.

Vanessa Mayhew developed a love of the piano at a very young age, and began taking lessons in the third grade. She was trained in classical and contemporary music for ten years, with an emphasis on theory and ear training. She has accompanied theatrical performances, soloists, and has played in several music teams for various churches. She has been teaching piano lessons to children and adults since August 2004 at Warner Barracks, Bamberg.

Karoline Oehme began studying music at the Conservatory of Music in Dresden in 1992 at the age of 11. For the next eight years she focused her studies on violin, viola, piano, and music theory. Ms. Oehme is currently completing her Masters degree in Music Education and Ethnomusicology at Otto-Friedrich University in Bamberg. Since 2001, Ms. Oehme has instructed violin, viola, and a children's choir at the music schools in Strullendorf and Hirschaid. She also teaches elementary music education.

Private lessons are one-half hour or one hour in length. Students follow a progressive curriculum, studying techniques according to their abilities. Performance practices are emphasized, and students are encouraged to participate in at least one recital per year.

Cost of books and other lesson materials are the responsibility of the student. Instructors will provide students with additional information and details.

Instructors are not required to provide make-up lessons for unexcused absences. Please refer to the SKIES Unlimited cancellation policy letter for additional details.
